

ETKB Foundation 0B Free Practice Pack

#8

The Verb “To Do”

Page 1 – Do or Does?

Remember:

- I / you / we / they → do
- he / she / it → does

Part A – Choose the Correct Form

Write do or does.

1. I _____ my homework every day.
2. She _____ the dishes after dinner.
3. They _____ their work in class.
4. He _____ a good job.
5. We _____ our exercises every morning.
6. My teacher _____ a lot of work.
7. You _____ your homework at night.
8. Maria _____ the laundry on Saturday.
9. Bob and Maria _____ their work together.
10. My brother _____ his homework after dinner.

Part B – Do or Does as a Helping Verb?

Write Do or Does to complete each question.

1. _____ you study English?
2. _____ she work every day?
3. _____ they live nearby?
4. _____ he like coffee?
5. _____ your teacher speak English?
6. _____ your friends have class today?

Part C – Make It Negative

Change each statement into a negative statement.

Example:

She likes coffee. → She doesn't like coffee.

1. He works on Sunday.

2. They live nearby.

3. She drives to work.

4. We need a book.

5. Bob likes coffee.

Page 2 – Questions and Speaking

Part A – Make It a Question

Change each statement into a question.

Example:

She studies English. → Does she study English?

1. You study English.

2. He works every day.

3. They live in California.

4. Maria likes coffee.

5. Your friends speak English.

Part B – When “Do” Is Both Verbs

Complete each sentence with do or does.

1. I _____ my homework every night.
2. _____ you _____ your homework every night?
3. She _____ the dishes after dinner.
4. _____ she _____ the dishes after dinner?
5. He _____ a good job.
6. _____ he _____ a good job?

Your Turn

Answer in complete sentences.

1. Do you study English every day?
-

2. Do you work every day?
-

3. Do you do homework?
-

Now ask another person:

Do you speak English every day?

Their answer:

Goal: I can use do and does as main verbs and helping verbs in statements, negative sentences, and questions.

