Positive Statements

Page 1 – Build Positive Statements

Remember: A positive statement gives information. It is not a question or a negative statement.

A basic positive statement begins with:

Subject + Verb

Part A – Choose the Correct Verb

Circle the correct answer.

1. I (am / is) a student.
2. She (have / has) a car.
3. They (do / does) their homework.
4. He (work / works) every day.
5. We (am / are) ready.
6. Maria (study / studies) English.
7. My parents (has / have) a house.
8. Bob (do / does) a good job.
9. The students (is / are) in class.
10. My brother (live / lives) in California.

Part B – Find the Subject and Verb

Underline the subject and circle the verb.

1. Bob works every day.
 2. She is a teacher.
 3. My parents have a car.
 4. They study English.
 5. Maria does her homework.
 6. We are ready.

Page 2 – Build Complete Sentences

Part A – Put the Words in Order

1. English / I / study

2. teacher / is / She / a

3. car / He / a / has

4. homework / They / their / do

5. every day / works / Bob

6. California / We / in / live

Part B – Correct the Mistake

Rewrite each sentence correctly.

1. She work every day.

2. They studies English.

3. He have a car.

4. We is ready.

5. Maria do her homework.

Your Turn

Write three true positive statements about yourself.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Say your three sentences aloud.

Goal: I can build complete positive statements with the correct subject and verb.
