

ETKB Foundation 0B Free Practice Pack #11

Negative Statements

Page 1 – Make It Negative

Remember:

With to be, add not:

She is tired. → She isn't tired.

With many other verbs:

- I / you / we / they → don't
- he / she / it → doesn't

After doesn't, use the base form of the verb.

Part A – Make “To Be” Negative

Change each positive statement into a negative statement.

1. He is a teacher.

2. They are at home.

3. We are late.

4. She is ready.

5. I am tired.

Part B – Don't or Doesn't?

Write don't or doesn't.

1. I _____ work on Sunday.
2. She _____ have a car.
3. They _____ live nearby.
4. He _____ like coffee.
5. We _____ have class today.
6. Maria _____ study at night.
7. You _____ need a book.
8. My brother _____ drive to work.

Part C – Make It Negative

1. He has a job.

-
2. They study English.

-
3. Maria works every day.

-
4. We have class today.

-
5. Bob does his homework.
-

Page 2 – Practice Negative Statements

Part A – Choose the Correct Sentence

- 1.

- A. She doesn't have a car.
- B. She doesn't has a car.

2.

- A. He doesn't works on Sunday.
- B. He doesn't work on Sunday.

3.

- A. They don't live here.
- B. They doesn't live here.

4.

- A. Maria doesn't studies English.
- B. Maria doesn't study English.

5.

- A. We aren't late.
- B. We doesn't late.

6.

- A. Bob doesn't do his homework.
- B. Bob doesn't does his homework.

Part B – Correct the Mistake

Rewrite each sentence correctly.

1. She don't work on Sunday.

2. He doesn't has a car.

3. They isn't ready.

4. Maria doesn't studies English.

5. Bob doesn't does the dishes.
-

Your Turn

Write three true negative statements about yourself.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Say your three sentences aloud.

Goal: I can make negative statements using not, don't, and doesn't.